

IN THE SOUP.

Mont Carnes, the people's favorite, went in with lusty whoop, and both well and his friends alas; are buried in the soup.

Poor White is down clear o'er his head, he can no longer stoop; while Dalby gazes on and smiles, to see him in the soup.

The Smith's are mighty as to name, and form a gallant troupe, but "busted" is their little boom for Harvey's in the soup.

Frank Landmann's rope was well prepared but somehow missed a loop and so to-day he hides his woes beneath the friendly soup.

Alas! for Rembaugh's little scheme his "flour" was made to droop that card of Charlie Messerly's sent out, has tripped him in the soup.

Mike Doherty prov'd that in a race, he was no party's dupe; his friends combined and lo! poor Pat, is wrestling in the soup.

George Longan, won of course he did, his rooster has no rump; but Hoffman swims with feeble stroke for he is in—the soup.

Boy bears the palm and well he'll care for those who wear the "jupe," poor Bailey splashes where the steam doth tell he's in the soup.

Yes we is theirs, the democrats have captured "all the coop" and in a bunch the "rads" alas! are buried in the soup.

AN EXTRA SESSION.

President Harrison has concluded to convene Congress.

Washington, November 4.—The president said yesterday, before leaving the city, that it had been practically decided to call an extra session. Unless something should occur to change his mind, he will issue the proclamation calling congress together upon his return from Indianapolis, the latter part of this week. The president does not think the exigency requires that congress shall be in session more than ten or twelve working days previous to the regular session.

The call will probably name the 18th or 19th as the date when the extra session shall convene. Mr. Harrison will urge upon congress in his message the necessity of immediate action on the reappointment bill.

Attempted Suicide.

Bonham, Tex., November 6.—Yesterday at Ravenna, Ed Hoard, one of the judges of the election at that place, attempted to commit suicide by taking a large quantity of chloral. Friends commenced work immediately with him, and at last accounts he was still alive. Your reporter learns that the cause for the rash act is that he has lately been arrested under a charge of assault to murder. It is said the offence was committed fifteen years ago in Kentucky. His children then were small and knew nothing of the charge, nor since then had they been informed of it until the arrest. Hoard who is well liked, and is looked upon as a good man, has been troubled, and has taken to drink. Both together had so frenzied his mind that he sought relief in drink, which would result in his death if medical aid had not interfered.

A Census Job

Washington, D. C. November 3.—The following is a close copy of an appeal which reached the Superintendent of the census to-day:

Kapousen, Pierce County, Wash., October 23, 1890.—Say! Uncle Sam, I was census enumerator for district No. 114 of the First Supervisor's District of Washington. I had an unsurveyed District in the foothills of the Cascade Mountains, and had no soft job.

I have no complaint mad to me of my work, as many others have had. Now Uncle; it is getting late in the season, and it is a 115 days since I finished my work, and Mary is getting anxious about something to keep warm with, in the shape of blankets.

I don't drink whisky, nor smoke cigars, but I want a new shirt for Christmas, and there is a Hundred and Twenty dollars coming to me from the Treasury department. Now I would like to get it, without having to fee a Loyer, and give him 3 of it to get it for me, as has been the case heretofore.

Respectfully,

PIERCE W. FRAZIER.

Kapousen, Pierce County, Wash.

Fire in a Tunnel

Salt Lake City, Utah, November 4.—An extensive fire occurred at the mouth of the Ontario Eastern Drain tunnel at an early hour yesterday morning. The fire was discovered shortly before midnight, and was caused by the overturning of a candle. The men all got out in safety. The loss is placed at $60,000; no insurance. The work of draining the tunnel will be delayed probably two months.

BLEW OUT THE GAS.

A Young Couple Asphyxiated in a New Haven (Conn.) Hotel.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 4.—Yesterday afternoon John Brown and a young girl were found asphyxiated in a room in the Franklin house at the corner of Frank and Green streets. The couple had registered at the hotel Saturday as man and wife. Yesterday afternoon the odor of gas was discovered coming from the room occupied by the couple. Investigation showed that the gas was turned on and that they had been inhaling the gas for eight hours at least. The gas was seen burning until 3 o'clock and it is believed that either Brown or the woman, who was half asleep, blew the gas out. Brown died in the hospital this afternoon. The girl died a few hours before without having regained consciousness. The identity of the girl has not been established. She appears to be respectable, but is not Brown's wife. She is a handsome brunette, of medium height and regular features. It is believed that she belongs out of town and photographs have been sent far and wide.

Sandbagged

Peoria, Ill., November 4.—Conrad Schwalm, proprietor of the Washington House, was sandbagged by an unknown man last night. He and son were walking down Bridge street, when a man sprang out of a dark alley and struck the old man down. He has not recovered consciousness since the assault. He had considerable money on his person, but the cries of his son prevented robbery.

Probably Fatally Shot.

Lafayette, Ind., Nov. 4.—George Bennett, a painter, yesterday shot and fatally wounded John Werkhoff as the latter was walking along the street with a friend. He then attacked W. H. Scott, shooting and killing him instantly. The reason given for the attack on Werkhoff is that the latter had broken his paint brushes, but it is said that Scott and he had some disagreement over a room that Bennett occupied, and for which Scott was agent. Bennett had been drinking. He was arrested.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Two Bold Burglars

Paducah, Ky., November 4.—Two robberies were committed here last night. The jewelry store of M. Kronberger was entered at 7 o'clock, while the family were in a rear room, and the show case broken and relieved of gold watches and a number of gold rings. The proprietor returned in time to see his daring visitor leave by the front door, but could not detain him. The room of Edward Stephens, in the St. Bernard hotel, was entered while he was asleep and his pockets rifled.

Killed For a Girl's Love.

San Angelo, Tex., Nov. 4.—News of the murder of Hart Phillips, a stockman, by W. A. Merrill, a near neighbor, last Wednesday, on Howard Draw, 100 miles west of here, has just reached San Angelo. It seems that the murderer and the murdered man were bosom friends up to a short time ago, when they both became enamored with a young lady, the daughter of a prominent sheepman. Phillips appears to have been shot while kneeling, begging for his life. The ball entered his shoulder and ranged downward, causing instant death. Merrill has not yet been arrested, but a large reward has been offered for his capture.

THE OLD STORY.

Death of a Young Girl From a Criminal Operation at Darlington, Mo.

Darlington, Mo., Nov. 6.—In company with her sister, Telia, Josie Dilley, a young lady about twenty years of age, arrived here from Pattonsburg, Mo., and engaged a room at the McCulley Hotel on Friday evening, October 21. The next day a tall, light haired young man arrived from Pattonsburg, who professed to be a physician, in company with a young man. They repaired to the room occupied by the girls at the McCulley House, and remained until Monday morning, when they returned eastward. Nothing was seen of either of the girls outside of the hotel until Wednesday of last week, when Dr. Dyke was summoned to the hotel. He discovered that a criminal operation had been performed and that Josie was dying, and he so notified the girls. They refused to telegraph their parents and all of these facts were kept profoundly secret. The father of the girls, Joseph Dilley, a prominent farmer near Pattonsburg, was notified Sunday morning that his daughter had died the night before, and he came to take the remains to Pattonsburg. The old man's statement was that his daughters had left home with the intention of visiting a sister in St. Joseph.

The name of the young man at Pattonsburg accused of Josie Dilley's ruin is Tilton Beasley, clerk in a store at that place. The Bazoo correspondent secured a copy of a letter dated at Pattonsburg, October 29, addressed to the girls here, as follows:

Dear Telia and Josie—It is very late and having had a talk with Doc, will only write you to say that I will be up to-morrow, that is Thursday evening on local and bring you if able to come, which you will be, I think, and so does Doc. Will bring also the required amount of money that Mr. McCulley wanted to keep quiet. Trusting that Josie is getting along nicely, as well as we left her this morning, and that I will hear from you in the morning, I am yours always.

Steps have been taken by the father of the victim to arrest the perpetrators of the crime and all implicated in the tragedy will be apprehended as speedily as possible. The Prosecuting Attorney has the case in charge.

Requisition For Cattle Thieves

Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 6.—Officers have gone from here to Cheyenne county, Neb., with a requisition for Wm. Watkins and Felix James, who have in the past four months, it is charged, stolen 132 head of cattle from the ranges of Eastern Wyoming. Watkins and James supplied several small Union Pacific towns with beef. They were betrayed by a teamster. A detective visited the ranch and counted 132 hides with the brands cut out. The losers are Chamberlain & Doly, the Hillsdale Land and Cattle Company, Laramie River Cattle and Land Company, Pratt & Ferris, Swan Land and Cattle Company and the Royal Horse Association. The officers are after the other thieves.

—G. W. Duke, en route from Abilene, Kan., to Marceline, Mo., stopped for the night at a hotel in Hardin, and the next morning was found dead in his bed. He had $600 on his person.

—The grip has reappeared in Marshall.

A Method of Treating Disease.

What are they? There is a new departure in the treatment of disease. It consists in the collection of the specifics used by noted specialists of Europe and America, and bringing them within the reach of all. For instance the treatment pursued by special physicians who treat indigestion, stomach and liver troubles only, was obtained and prepared. The treatment of other physicians, celebrated for curing catarrh was procured, and so on till these incomparable cures now include disease of the lungs, kidneys, female weakness, rheumatism and nervous debility. This new method of "one remedy for one disease" must appeal to the common sense of all sufferers, many of whom have experienced the ill effects, and thoroughly realize the absurdity of the claims of Patent Medicines which are guaranteed to cure every ill out of a single bottle, and the use of which as statistics prove, has ruined more stomachs than alcohol. A circular describing these new remedies is sent free on receipt of stamp to pay postage by Hospital Remedy Company, Toronto, Canada, sole proprietors.

A HUMAN BRUTE.

He Kicks and Beats His Wife so Cruelly That She May Die.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 6.—Early last evening Reuben Emery and his wife, Ophelia, quarreled at their home in the of 205 South Fifteenth street. Becoming enraged Emery knocked the woman down, and began violently beating her with his fist. He would probably have killed her had not Detective Danaher and Ziegler, who were passing at the time heard her screams, and come to her rescue. The scene which they beheld when they broke in the door was a ghastly one. Every piece of furniture in the room was covered with blood. The almost naked and bleeding body of the woman was lying in the middle of the floor. Crouched under the bed, vainly attempting to hide, was her husband. An ambulance was summoned and she was removed to the Dispensary. After her wounds had been dressed, she was sent to the City Hospital in a dying condition. Her chance of recovering is very slim, as her chest is almost beaten in. The brute was arrested and will be held to await the result of her injuries.

Catarrh, Catarrhal Deafness—Hay Fever. A New Home Treatment.

Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and eustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact, and the result of this discovery is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks.

N. B.—This treatment is not a snuff or an ointment; both have been discarded by reputable physicians as injurious. A pamphlet explaining this new treatment is sent free on receipt of stamp to pay postage, by A. H. Dixon & Son, 337 and 339 West King street, Toronto, Canada—Christian Advocate.

Sufferers from catarrhal troubles should carefully read the above.
